 11. The Boy Scouts of America (BSA) has an official policy of discriminating against gays. The U.S. Supreme Court ruled that they are a private organization and hence, can discriminate against whomever they choose. Do you believe the BSA should receive access to school district resources and/or funds money even though they openly discriminate against gays? YES NO

 12. Many studies have shown that GLBT youth have difficulties succeeding in the educational setting and life, due to unique circumstances surrounding social isolation, depression, bullying, rejection by family, homelessness, high rates of drug and alcohol abuse and suicide, and a lack of role models and sexual orientation information. What will you do about this?
